

This broadcast of the anti-Kerry film that has already be discredited is an outgrowth of the dangerous media consolidation and deregulation of the Reagan era.

The public airwaves belong to the public, and Sinclair is obligated to serve our interests. Democracy is threatened by the power and control concentrated in the hands of these corporate interests.

It's your mandate to protect democracy from these powerful interests, not to support them.